General Report Comments: While doing door to door I saw 1x black pitbull x female roaming the street. I followed the dog to where she went and lay down in front of a house on the sidewalk. I stopped and a lady came out who introduced herself as Mrs. Booisen, she said that her husband is the owner of the dog. I asked Mrs. Booisen if they are using any treatment for the skin condition the dog called Cloe has and she said no, they don't know what to use. I told her that they can go to a vet and the vet will prescribe treatment for the skin condition, I also gave her the option to surrender if treatment is not affordable. Cloe is always in the street because the property is not fully fenced. Inside the yard there is shelter and water available. I issued warning W6395. Will follow up.
