CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: Upon arrival I saw a young man inside the yard. I asked the young man who introduced himself as Xholi where the brown and white pitbull female with the skin condition is and he said that the dog belongs to his brother but the dog is no longer on the property because his brother gave the dog away but did not tell them who he gave the dog too as they were also suprised to see the dog missing. Xholi saw that I was skeptically about this story and took me around the house and inside the house so that I can see for myself that the dog is not there. I will do another recheck after some time because some people do lie and think that I'm not going to come back again.
