General Report Comments: I saw this female Rottweiler x running in the street, the first thing I noticed was that her vulva is swollen. I stopped and asked the kids who were playing in the street who the dog belongs too, and they took me to the house where I was met by a lady who introduced herself as Angelique Swart the owner of the dog called Zuzu. I explained to Mrs. Swart that I'm not a vet but the dogs swollen vulva usually means cancer or a prolapse. I issued warning W6255 to get Zuzu to a vet within 5 days. Will follow up.
