General Report Comments: The SPCA received a complaint about a dog that was attacked by a pitbull and that the owner has not taken the dog to the vet. I went out and found the owner Mr. Ockhuis at home. I asked Mr Ockhuis to see the dog and he called the dog Mia where she came from inside the house. Mia a black and brown Mix breed female has an open wound by her neck that is starting to show signs of infection. Mr. Ockhuis told me what had happened and that he only came home this morning. I asked Mr. Ockhuis if he can afford a vet and he said yes but he does not have transportation . I offered to take him and Mia to the vet. We arrived at Langebaan animal hospital where Mia was admitted. Mia's wound was drained but she had to stay overnight. NFA until further notice.
