General Report Comments: I saw this white and brown terrier x male in the street. The dog appeared to have a wound on his back. Upon closer inspection it looked like the dog was burned with hot water or something. The kids in the street showed me the dog belongs. I went to the house and a lady came out,she introduced herself as Mrs.Jacobs the owner of the dog. I asked her what happened to the dog called Boesman and she said that she does not know,I told her that it looks like the dog was burned with hot water or something. I asked Mrs. Jacobs if she can afford a vet and she said no. I asked her to surrender Boesman because if she can't afford a vet she will only be prolonging his suffering. Boesman was surrendered to the SPCA. Refer to admission E2047. No other animals was on the property. NFA until further notice.
