General Report Comments: I saw this white cat sitting in front of this house. I stopped and saw that the cat has wound on his head. Upon closer inspection it looked like the cat might have cancer. I called out to see if the cat belongs to the property where he was sitting,a man came out and said his name is Peter,I asked Peter if he know who the cat belongs too and he said yes it's his cat. I asked Peter why the cat is in such condition and he told me that he was looking for the SPCA's phone number so that we can come and collect the cat because he does not know what is wrong with Whitey. Whitey was surrendered to the SPCA. Refer to admission E2048. NFA until further notice.
