Please describe the concern you have

Tin can town NPO is located in Kalbaskraal I have recently moved in behind them and I am very worried about how the animals are been treated I see them get beat and constantly shouted at a couple of them are locked up in pens for days on end! There is a man there who looks after the animals that have mental outbursts. He is extremely rude and threatens me almost every other week , I am concerned for the welfare of these animals and I want something to be done or at least investigated! I have a strong suspicion that the people running this organisation are on drugs as the behavior is not rational at all! Please help these animals. They have about 17 dogs on the property and I hear cats but do not see them.
