

INSPECTOR NOTE

|              |                 |
|--------------|-----------------|
| Building:    |                 |
| Street:      | Unknown         |
| Suburb:      | Riebeek Kasteel |
| Postal Code: |                 |
| Date:        | 2026-08-13      |
| Time:        | 14:22           |
| Inspector:   | MPHO BALOYI     |

---

|                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type:           | GENERAL                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Follow-Up Date: |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Comments:       | As I was doing animals door to door welfare inspection in Riebeek Kasteel, I came across a calico cat covered with a plastic around it's head, it looked like couldn't breath well, I then stopped and removed the plastic around the neck. NFA |
| Captured By:    | Mpho Baloyi 2026-08-13 14:22                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |