General Report Comments: I saw 1x brown and white pitbull male on a +-3meter long chain with a collar. There was no one at home upon my arrival. The dog has a plastic refuse bin as shelter, inside the bin is a sponge mattress. Water available next to the bin. Upon closer inspection I saw that the dog has a wound on his left side that looks to me like a burn wound. While issuing out a warning a lady approached the SPCA vechile and introduced herself as the owner of the dog, Mrs. Mowers. I asked Mrs. Mowers why the dog is chained and what happened to the dog because I see he has a wound. Mrs. Mowers said that somebody must have burned him because they let him of the chain when they were around and the dog Danger somehow got out, he only came back the next day Mrs. Mowers said with what appears to be a burned wound. She has used wound ointment for humans and I told her that it is not meant for animals. I issued warning W6298 to provide Danger with adequate treatment for the wound and to put him on a runner and to also clean his living area. Will follow-up.
