General Report Comments: Dog appear to be in good physical condition. I informed the owner about importance of sterilization. The dog is kept at the back section because it's run to the street when the vehicles move in and out. The dogs barks when the children plays at the front section or see unknown person. I was informed by the owner that the dogs plays rough as well. I told her that she must take her dog for training.
The is welfare concerns during my inspection.
