General Report Comments: At the property, a young boy who is a son of the owner said his parents are not home and they left with the keys and the remote for the gate. I asked for his father's phone number and I contacted him. He said he will be available on Monday and I can call to meet. A few minutes later a fellow tenant of the dogs' owner entered the property and asked him to let me in. When I inspected the dogs' living condition, the dogs did not seem to have adequate shelter but they appeared to be in good physical condition. An appointment was made to meet with the owner on Monday.
