General Report Comments: Inspector Warren and I arrived at the property and we hooted at the gate. The helper came to the gate and she said her name was Yvonne. We told her that there's a complaint from the neighbour's saying that their dogs are crying in distress. She said that she was not aware of this and she invited us in the house. There were 2 dogs on the property (as detailed under Animals) staying indoors, water and shelter were made available. Yvonne is a live-in domestic worker who takes care of everything in the house including the dogs. We noticed that there were leashes fastened to small trees at the back of the house and asked if they tie up the dogs she admitted to it saying they are avoiding the dogs from running out to the street. We advised her that they may not chain the dogs and find a better of controlling this, such as keeping them in the house whenever they are driving out. Yvonne said she understood and she will explain this to the owner.
