General Report Comments: At the property, I found construction workers and I asked whether the owners were home. They called the owner for me. The owner were surprised to hear this allegations and they offered to show me around. There were 2 Yorkshire Terriers named 'Coco' and 'Mooly' kept in the courtyard away from the construction workers and they were barking at through the separating door when they hear movements. Water, food and shelter were provided. No violation of the APA was noted.
