General Report Comments: I arrived at the Forest Road Design and Decor Centre and spoke to a few people including Urban Watch Security guards, Mr. Rapudubudu and Mrs. Mthembu. The Centre occupies 2 sections Décor Centre #1 and Decor Centre #2 Mr. Rapudubudu works at Décor Centre #1 and he directed me to go to Décor Centre #2 behind the shops. I spoke to his fellow guard Mrs Mthembu who was not aware of the of this claim at Décor Centre #2. I then went on my own after I asked to be escorted which Mrs. Mthembu granted my access to proceed to the receiving area. The dog was found held behind the stores: Storage Africa, Vape Mate and ACDC stores locked in an fairly open enclosure. I could not see whether shelter or water was provided. There was no access to the enclosure as the gate was locked. The dog appeared to be in a fairly acceptable condition physically. No one responded when hooted and shouted for attention. After asking a few people working at the Centre, I was told that the dog belongs to people owning or working at Storage Africa. I left them a written warning for them to contact me within 24 hours urgently placed under the shop doors. To give Xolane feedback and ask him to follow up.
