General Report Comments: I went to a store labeled Discount Foods and asked the security at checkout door about the situation regarding the dogs. They referred me to the manager Oros who said that the dogs are kept by one of the employees for temporary but said they will remove them soon. He said the owner got arrested yesterday coming out tomorrow. Mr Oros phoned the brother who was looking after the dogs at that moment (the one who gave me an access) to come to meet me at the store. The brother later came to meet with me and took me to the where the dogs were held. The dogs were found in a dirty area with faeces which appeared to be swept and kept together in one place in the same area as the dogs. The food was rained on and submerged in narrow containers. One of the dogs appeared to be underweight and they claimed she was on treatment. While he was showing me around, the owner's wife Noxolo Ngcelwane walked in on us saying they were going through some problems still planning on taking the dogs somewhere suitable. The owner called a few minutes later while we were there saying that they will be making other arrangements for the dogs. I advised him to find a suitable place to keep the dogs. I issued them with a written warning for the concerns I noted above. To follow up
