General Report Comments: The owner was home when I arrived at the house. They invited me to follow them into the house because they keep the dogs at the backyard. He owns 2 Pitbull dogs male and female. He said he keep them separate because the female was on heat and was avoiding her from being impregnated. The female was kept in an extra room while the male was in the backyard. He claimed he alternate their share of the backyard throughout the day. I advised him to get them sterilized as soon as possible and offered to book him in to our clinic next year. He said he takes his dogs to the Fourways Vet but would like to get the female spayed but was not willing to get the male neutered. I told him that I'll be in touch with him to confirm the date and time. To phone him for steri arrangements.
