General Report Comments: No elders were home. A 10-year-old boy named Renier said to me that his parents had not taken the dog to a vet. He said his parents are always busy and didn't have time but they have taken the dog to a doctor before. I wrote them a written warning to take the dog to a vet or provide proof of treatment from a vet within 24 hours. The dogs had adequate shelter, water and were free roaming. No dog had a poor body condition score during my inspection. To follow up with soon
