Comments:	The dogs were not found at the location reported. We followed their trail which led us to the Baby Steps Early Learning Center. The workers confirm the dogs as "Max" and "Bella" who snuck out of the yard when someone left the gate unlocked, blocked it off with a brick and was blown by wind. The dogs had a built-up wooden shelter, water and food bowls. They were also keeping livestock chickens(6) in coops. Kimbal contacted the owners who further confirmed the dogs as their own having been there for 2 months and I spoke to her on some pointers. The owner said they recently experienced a break-in, so the dogs were adopted to deter intruders. No welfare concerns were noted.
