General Report Comments: I met with the owner at the property in her unit with her roommate. They had 3 (of their working) dogs with them in the unit preparing them for another one of their call-outs that they got from their organization, Healthy Hound K9 unit. Her pet dogs were not on the property according to the owner as they were still placed in a kennel for boarding due to the fact that they are always on the the road. The dogs had plenty of resting spots, toys and water bowls(with ice balls) within and around the house. They were still renovating the living room for tiling. She claimed she owns 3 dogs that were currently held in their boarding kennel facility and another reason for that was that neighbours were complaining about the dogs just playing in her garden. She said the dogs will be coming back next week and gave me permission to inspect the house even when she not there. I told her I'll be sure to make stop at her house when I'm in the area. To follow up next week to inspect her own dogs
