General Report Comments: The lady of the house, Nthabiseng opened the gate for me to view the dog's living conditions. The dog had shelter, water and free roaming in the property. This was the second time going in less than a year on claims of the dog barking. The dog barks and I had opportunity to witness the dog barking at moving vehicles and walking and running dogs passing by. The owner showed me the kennel, feeding bowls and food that were provided. No violation of Animals Protection Act was found.
