General Report Comments: On entry at the eco-park, Mr. Lovemore Nkomo of Imvusa Security tended to my arrival and took me to the dogs' holding area. 4 dogs were found on duty for safeguarding. Mr Nkomo said that their security company hired the dogs from Annette van Rensburg but currently being held there while on duty. The dog handlers claimed to have acquired Dog Handling certificates through her training in Marlboro. No proper and valid documentation in relation to the dogs were presented to me except for the PAPA license that belonged to Annette van Rensburg. We went to the dogs' holding cages where the 4 security dogs were being held in separate cages. Each with its own kennel, water and feeding bowls. The flooring in one of the cages(1st cage from gate) was not properly cemented causing muddy puddles, gaps and the steel mesh was unmounted off the cage frame. Another cage(2nd from the gate) had a dog kennel that was in a near collapse state. The third cage had a broken gate latch and was fastened with chain. Fly traps were were placed literally on the last cage which drew flies closer to the dogs. None of the dog handlers appeared to be aware of the dogs' details or even their names. Dog poo was gathered in front of the dog cages in dog food bags. Old damaged pallets dumped next to the dog poo making the whole place messy and untidy could easily attract pests. I issued a written warning to Imvusa Security to put them to task in fixing the above-mentioned issues. To follow-up in 5 days
