General Report Comments: Upon arrival the dogs were inside the room because they were people cutting trees and are afraid of the dogs. The reason for locking them inside the house is that Roxy is aggressive to strangers. The owner denied breeding the dogs and told me that the reason he sterilised the females it is because he does not want puppies. The house or the room is approximately 4 metres by 4 metres. The only incident which happened in the previous days is that the dogs went out through the gate by mistake and ran to the street and he was scared that they might bite people but they did not.
