CHECKLISTS

General Report Comments: I arrived at the park no one was found with dogs or even walking any. I approached a gentleman named Kingsley Eze who was raking tree leaves working as a gardener for the park. Mr. Eze stated to me that I may have missed the culprits by approximately 15 minutes. He showed me the exact spot where they were seen fighting the dogs and without any further delay I went to look for clues but it was a grassy spot so clues of dog-fighting were evident. He also stated that the boys frequent the park on Fridays and Saturdays and they are from Alex. On my way back I came across patrol officer June, from CAP security who said he never saw the boys with dogs when patrolling and we exchanged phone numbers. I searched for the culprits in the area and in the direction towards Alexandra. The boys were not found.
