General Report Comments: I was attended by a young gentleman, named Samkelo when I arrived at the property who invited me into the yard. Samkelo to me took me to the cottage that is housing the cats where we found 2 juvenile kittens in the room that appeared to be dirty and smelly. There were empty containers on the floor and pieces of leftover food placed next to the door. According to Samkelo, the tenant who's also the their tenant, was evicted for failing to make rental payment. She left her belongings because she was still making arrangements to fetch them and the kittens. I phoned the owner to tell her that this was not acceptable because she needed to bring or phone us to fetch the cats if was not able to take care of them. She said agreed to the kittens being signed over to the Sandton SPCA given her situation by the landlord on her behalf. The kittens were surrendered to the Sandton SPCA. Complaint finalized
