General Report Comments: The premises were previously used as a car dealership named Excel Motors. No one was responding when I was hooting from the gate. There was a display signage with the caretaker's contact details. I phoned the caretaker who informed that they keep the dogs there for security reasons because the property had been vandalized before. He revealed to me that he keeps at least 3 dogs on the premises that he checks on everyday before he goes to work. He claimed he provided one of the rooms at the far corner with blankets that he keeps open for them. There was a container place at the same far back place that was not clear what it was contained in it. There were 3 dogs on the premises but one of the bitches appeared to have bite-scars on the face. They appeared to be fairly fed physically and none of the 3 dogs that I could see were chained or restrained. We set up an appointment to meet with him in the next morning at 07:30
