General Report Comments: On arrival at the property, the owners were not comfortable allowing access to the property. They had issues trusting me into their house when I told them about the complaint. I asked them to call out their security reaction unit to escort me inside. CAP security guards, Aaron and Tuge escorted me into the yard to do the inspection. They own 4 dogs in total. 2 large Labradors of which were kept outside while 2 medium size dogs were kept indoors. The big dogs make use of the large Wendy house outside and the smaller ones are tucked in bed with the owners. Fresh potable water was made available for the all the dogs. No violation of the Animals Protection Act was found.
