General Report Comments: The owner allowed me access to view the dog in question. He owns only 1 dog that he said is 14 years old. He mentioned that that the dog was adopted from the SPCA in Booyens by his mother-in-law years ago. Also saying he has records at the Kenvally Vet for check-ups by Dr Last. The dog was in actual fact above an ideal weight. I advised him to perhaps put the dog on weight management diet. To get the dog to an ideal weight. An small green igloo dog kennel and water bowl were available in the patio to make use of when they are not home but the dog sleeps in their bedroom indoors with the owners. He dared to say his dog is the most spoilt dog I can find because he has no children. He was cussed out to the complainant also saying I must get my facts straight and not just accuse him about things. No malnourished dog was found in the yard during my inspection.
