General Report Comments: I was granted access by the security guard named Colbert at the main entrance. I went to the unit in question but found no one. I saw the dog through the service gate, a juvenile, x-large, black and tan, cross breed dog free roaming on the ground unit with a garden. I went to the back of the unit where the wall breaks by a ClearVu™ steel panel that gives a viewpoint into the yard. There was bedding in the veranda but I couldn't get better view into the whole veranda because of a tight angle. Dog poo appeared to be a few stools of recent droppings but no indication of old droppings of a large amount. The apartment didn't appear abandoned. I left a written Warning note for the owner to call me within 24 hours regarding this matter. To follow up tomorrow
