Comments:	I attempted to go to the house but he was still not available. I contacted him on his but he said he was not around, he was in Benoni seeing client. He said he will see me next week but he asked why I wanted to visit or see him. I explained to him that there are still claims of him keeping the dog in the cage and we still need to ensure that he complies with our written warning. He said he did not like my way of always phoning him but he will inform me when he's around because no one is allowed to open any strangers at his house. I'll wait for his response
