Comments:	I phoned the owner who was very upset when we spoke over the phone. I explained to him that we are still receiving regarding his dogs. He said I was ruining his family moment while they were enjoying their holiday outside Joburg. He just said he can only phone me in January to allow me to see his dogs because he keeps telling that everything is but I don't believe he hung the phone on me and never answered when I phoned him back. I will investigate further to find out any info from anyone who will be able to see living dogs' living conditions on the property as I am not able to see the dogs from the gate when in the area during the week as I will be on standby duty throughout the Christmas holidays
