Comments:	The son refused me to take the dog because he did not believe that the dog bothered anyone. He still showed me where the dog was staying in his bedroom. The dog was in acceptable physical condition. I tried to reason with him but he was unwilling to let go of the dog. I turned to his mother who revealed to me that her son is abusing substances and she had already booked him into rehab and will have people coming in a few days to fetch him and she will call back to inform us when they arrive. We will wait for her call
