General Report Comments: I went to the house and did not find the owner and only found the workers. The domestic worker, Ephodia granted me access into the house to examine their dog's living condition. The dog had 2 weatherproof dog kennels and potable water available. "Coco" had access into the driveway and according to Ephodia, "Coco" tends to push the gate open and sneak out of the yard. I suggested a few partitions in the yard to prevent the dog from running into the street to Ephodia to pass on the message to her boss. There was no prosecutable offense in respect of animals found on the property but they may have been incidents violating by-laws. I tried phoning the owner, Mrs Boitumelo Mokgare but she was not answering. I'll contact her
