CONFINEMENT OF ANIMALS	Static Chain - inadequate length  Afraid that people might steal the dog

General Report Comments: Upon arrival the puppy was chained with a a chain which is approximately 1,5 metres. The reason for chaining is that the owner is afraid that people will steal the puppy because during the day he is at work. The puppy was chained onto the pallet which the kennel is put on top of it. The owner has an adequate space at the back and what he can do is to put a gate so that the puppy wont go to the front.A warning note was issued for the owner to rectify the concern .
