General Report Comments: Upon arrival the dogs were separated one is at the front garden and the other is at the back. When I came in they the border collie to the alleyway because they say it is the one which bites. I asked the owner to surrender the dog and he told me that the he will make sure it will not go out again. He promised to put both dogs together at the back garden. He told me the dog went out because the gate broke. He spoke went with the person to the doctor.
