General Report Comments: The caretaker who was the caregiver to the late owner granted me access to the house after asking the owner's child. They own a Pitbull cross dog, a male dog and 2 adult cats. They had food and water available for them. I asked the worker about the late owner, and she stated that the owner had deceased 2 years ago and everything they need is being provided for them by the surviving children. There were 2 bags of Montego cat and dog food stored in the base deck next to the indoor staircase. She was willing to let go of the cats but decided to keep the dog. All animals appeared to be in acceptable physical condition. The dogs was placed in the passageway because contractors were working on floor repairs. I couldn't catch the cats because I found them wandering the yard and were quite nervous on approach. I advised the lady there to lure them into the house by feeding them indoors, as she usually feeds them on the balcony overlooking the roof of a shed. If she is successful in doing so I can capture them indoors. I will pay a visit on by the 17 th of April should she not call me
