General Report Comments: During the course of my investigation, I met with the dog owner, who showed me his two dogs. A Great Dane and a Rottweiler, freely roaming within the yard. Both animals had access to food and water and appeared to be in good condition.
I informed the owner of the nature of the complaint received. He explained that he occasionally confines the dogs to a passage when he is moving his vehicle in or out, or when visitors are present, for safety and control. However, he emphasized that once his vehicle has left or visitors have departed, the dogs are promptly released and allowed to roam the yard freely.
Notably, during the inspection, one of the dogs entered the house while I was present, further indicating their freedom of movement and familiarity with the premises.
