General Report Comments: I met the Mr Marcus' wife, Mrs Jayde Marcus who allowed me access into the house. "Cici" was kept in the house. Food and water were available indoors. The fence was still being fixed. I found small patches of chicken mesh placed on one section of the gaps but left the rest of them still exposed. I asked Mrs Marcus how the incident happened she stated to me that she was upstairs when she heard the commotion of the attack and when she ran downstairs (spraining of her legs) she found the dog in the yard and the complainant was in their garden cat coming to fetch her orange cat. She strongly believed that the incident happened in her yard. I still issued them with a warning to properly construct a secure border fence that will prevent the dog from escaping and to prevent any injury arising by any cause by their dog. To follow-up on the 17th
