General Report Comments: The owner, Mrs Jill Wileman, her friend, Mrs Lynn Wells and her caregivers were present tending to her frail health condition. The dog was still not taken, but the report they had already scheduled the next visit on the 2nd of September. I had a brief discussion with the owner while she was in bed. The owner assured me that she had been taking the dogs for necessary check-ups, including the condition that "Rex" has. She was adamant that the dog was still able to drink and eat despite his age and health. I told her to ask her vet to send me a vet report after the check-up tomorrow. She also stated the dog was always on heart medications, but she forgot to mention it to her friend Mrs Wells when she went away. To follow-up with the vet after tomorrow
