General Report Comments: The 2 dogs were found confined in a cage which is approximately 7 metres by 4 metres . they appeared to be in good condition . He told me that he confine them during the day because when the tenant open the gate they run to the street. He is scared that they might get knocked over by cars or they will bite people.. Educated him to divide his property and he said he has some tenants also at the back.He also told me that the inspector told him not to confine the dog in a small cage a year ago and he will no longer do it.
