General Report Comments: The owner's wife was at home when I arrived at the house. She invited me inside to inspect their dogs' living conditions. They own an 18-month-old, black, crossbreed female dog with 7 x 5-week-old puppies living in an extra base room. However, the room was found dirty with dog poo, and their place was also dirty with garbage that tipped over by the dog. There was no potable water provided but only provided in my presence
