General Report Comments: Upon my arrival, I met with the owner of the dogs and explained the nature of the concern. I was informed by the owner that the dogs had accidentally escaped when the gate was left open and that he was unaware of the incident. The dogs reportedly killed a feral cat. The owner is willing to pay for any damage caused by his dogs. I further educated the owner on the importance of sterilization and he agreed. There were no welfare concerns identified during my inspection. The front yard is seperated from the back yard, owner is keeping the dogs at the back section of the property so that they dont escape again.
