General Report Comments: The restaurant & bar owner, Mrs Patricia Moore, invited me inside to analyse the dogs' living situation. A gentleman named Themba, who was the owner, was found keeping 7 dogs at the back of the restaurant, and when we were introduced, he was not interested, concentrating on his sports betting list. He kept the dogs in dirty living conditions, by not cleaning after the dogs, although the dogs appeared to be in optimum weight and acceptable physical condition. The property owners instructed that I take all the dogs since the owner had been postponing the dogs' move. Mrs Patricia Moore signed over the dogs on the owner's behalf as she threatened to remove them from her property if I was not willing to take them, since the owner was not willing to sign anything. I told Mr Themba that I will be taking the dogs due to the imminent threat of losing their living place. I explained to the owner of the dogs that the dogs can only remain in our custody for 7 days, while he was insisting on looking for a new place in the township. The dog were impounded on those basis to ensure their safekeeping.
