General Report Comments: After receiving 2 more reports of their female dog being out on the street, I went to the house to investigate this issue. I met Mrs van der Berg, the mother of the owner's boyfriend, who said the owner, Holly Crystal, was attending a court matter and was not available. I checked the fence for any possible routes of escape. I could identify gaps in the gate, lower points along the fence and the gate was in bad repair. They admitted to the fact that "Trixie" lost some weight from giving birth to puppies, but dog food was in supply for all the dogs. I told that she sneaks out because a few community members know her and have offered her something to eat. It was revealed to me that "Trixie" was picked up a stray dog in the Westbury area when she was heavily pregnant and brought to the house for a new home for her. The owner phoned me during a court recess and we made an appointment to meet in the afternoon to discuss the plan for the dog. To meet the owner later on
