General Report Comments: Another lady also residing on the same property opened the gate for me to enter while she went on to call the owner for me. I met the owner, Mrs Jenny de Ville, who said they found the dog somewhere, took her in as their own, but realised that she had 'mange'. I encouraged her to surrender the dog give her condition and the iwner's living situation - struggling financially. "Coco" was surrendered to the Sandton SPCA and they had another small dog in acceptable condition . I still suggested treatment of the remaining while I gave her (expired)Frontline spot-on to apply in her dog as well that I had in my car.
