General Report Comments: Mr Shaemalo owns a 1-year-old, black and tan, male Rottweiler named "Junior" who was found tied with a long leash to a wooden dog kennel in the car garage. Next to the dog were bowls of water and food, even though the floor appeared to be dirty. The owner stated that he was placing the dog on a rope because he had small children who did not get along well with the dog. He stated that for this reason, he will be sending back the dog to the seller for a refund in Benoni for his kids' safety, and he was also grieving one of his employees, a gardener who just passed on. He was busy arranging for the deceased's pre-funeral logistics, and the dog will be sent away this Good Friday. A written warning was issued to the owner for placing the dog on a static rope. To follow-up next week
