General Report Comments: All the boerboel dogs were found with docked tails. The tails were have healed. Eugene Watson told me that they were done by the veterinary when they were 1 week old in Vaal. She says she does not have the contact number for the vet because she went with the friend there. I had to educate the owner that it is illegally to dock the animals tails and also had to give a warning regarding docking and educating her regarding sterilisation and she agreed to do so.
