General Report Comments: 2 hamsters were found in the property. They appeared to be in good condition. No cats were found in the property. I checked inside the house but no cats found and I didn't smell any cat feaces or see any feaces. Mr Jason told me the incident which happened is that there was a cat which has been crying in distress at night in the past 3 days before he received a warning note and he had to put food and water so that he can catch it and the neighbours thought the cat belongs to him
