General Report Comments: Only one dog named Papesi was found in the pro[perty]. The dog named Roxy was not found in the property and when asked the whereabouts of the dog she told me she took the dog to her friend who told promised to look after the dog and she will look after it until it gains the weight. the friend will bring it in a month time when the dog has gained weight . She also told me that the complainant who reported the matter same day to the Sandton spca Mr James told him that the SPCA when coming to do the follow up will take away the dog from her. She told me that she does not no the address but she knows the place is in Kempton park. She will bring the dog at the end of September because i had promised to sterilise it for free.
