Note: Any concerns noted in this table must be explained in detail in the Inspector's report.

Report/Findings:

At the property, we were acknowledged by the owner of the dog. The dog was observed roaming freely in the yard and struggling to walk. It appeared to have a medical condition requiring veterinary attention. Provision of shelter, food and water was observed freely accessible. A warning was issued for the owner to have the dog assessed by the vet and the follow up inspection will be conducted.

Action taken: (i.e. warning, education, seize, etc)
