Report/Findings:

The complaint was investigated by visiting the above Property. At the property I was acknowledged by the owner of the dog. The dog was found kept in a cage. The dog itself appeared to be in good condition with provision of adequate protection from weather elements food & water. When the owner was asked about the reason for the caging, he stated that the fence on the other side is very low and that he is scared for the welfare of the neighbours dogs and the safety of the
